Trail of Courage, Sept. 17-18

Lop 175 years off the calendar and celebrate the early 1800s at the 36th annual Trail of Courage History Festival Living September 17 and 18 at Rochester. It's a place where history comes alive, where you can trace the very footsteps of history and have a good time doing it.

The primary purpose of the Trail of Courage is to educate the public, to preserve and promote an accurate picture of life in frontier Indiana, as well as other areas and time periods of history, North American including the French and Indian War, voyageurs, Revolutionary War, War of 1812, Woodlands and Plains Indians, Western Fur Trade and Frontier Indiana. The festival is based on local history, when it was still Potawatomi Territory, before the Potawatomi Indians were marched west on the forced removal known as the Trail of Death. Since 1976, this festival has honored the American Indians and shown life before the removal.

Frontier Indiana comes to life with foods cooked over wood fires, period music and dance, traditional crafts, historic camps and trading, canoe rides on the river, and much more. It is produced by the Fulton County Historical Society. This event combines genealogy of the Potawatomi Indians and the settlers who lived in Fulton County and northern Indiana in the early 1800s with the rendezvous events, stage programs, the historic canoe landing and fur trade skit on the Tippecanoe River.

The Trail of Courage will be held at the FCHS grounds, four miles north of Rochester on U.S. 31. Admission is $6 for adults, $2 for children (ages 6-11) and free for those age five and under. Hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday.

This year the festival will honor the Potawatomi family of Chief Nas-waw-kee and Doga, who were at the 1837 treaty council at Lake Kew-waw-nay (now Lake

The public is invited to join in the Indian dances at 2 p.m. and 3 p.m., which are held in an arena encircled by teepees. The drum will be Winter Hawk Drum led by Fred Flury of Walkerton. Head dancers will be Jefferson and Elizabeth Ballew, Mt. Pleasant, Michigan. George Godfrey, Athens, Illinois, a member of the Citizen Potawatomi Nation, will act as emcee. He has been dancing at the Trail of Courage since 1988. Godfrey will help with the dedication at the new historical marker for Chief Nas-waw-kee at Lake Maxinkuckee, Culver, at 5 p.m. on Friday, September 15. The public is invited to this dedication.

The Trail of Courage includes historic encampments representing the French and Indiana War, Voyageurs, Revolutionary War, War of 1812, Western Fur Trade, Plains Indians teepees and a Woodlawn Indian wigwam village. A special re-creation of Village includes a Miami lifeway wigwams and demonstrations, such as making cattail mats.

Another re-creation is of Chippeway Village, the first trading post, post office and village in Fulton County in 1832. Food purveyors and traditional craftsmen set up in wooden booths. Craftsmen also sell pre-1840 trade goods from blankets and in historic merchant tents, offering a variety of items from clothing and jewelry to knives and candles, everything needed to live in frontier days. Canoe rides, muzzle loading shooting and tomahawk throwing contests and a Mountain Man tug of war add to the frontier activities.

Two stages with frontier music and dance present programs from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday. Since the early 1980s, FCHS has received grants from the Indiana Arts Commission and the National Endowment for the Arts to help pay for musicians and dancers: 42nd Royal Highlanders, River Valley Colonials Fife & Drum Corp. Aztec dancers. Shakin' Hammers string band, Mark and Liza Woolever, Steve McPhail as Johnny Appleseed, Chuck Molenda as Ben Franklin, Indian dancers and drum. This year, the grant was for $1,607 which is less than a third of the $7,340 cost of the performers. Donations to match the grant are required by the Indiana Arts Commission and can be mailed to: FCHS, 37 E 375 N, Rochester, IN 46975.

Many volunteers provide programs such as the Frontier Frolic dance called by Shirley Willard; 78 Frasier Pipe & Drum Corps; Nan Edwards and Margo Moore's dogs pulling travois; Marsha Glassburn, Indian storytelling; Shirley Needham with her red-tailed and redshoulder hawks; Frontier fashion show; Riddle School dancers; and Mark Gropp and his bagpipes. Both Catholic and Protestant worship services are held at 9 a.m. Sunday. Father Denny Kinderman of Chicago has been coming to do Mass for over 10 years.

Pioneer foods are cooked over wood fires. Visitors can feast on buffalo burgers, dumplings, chicken and noodles, barbecue, ham and beans, vegetable stew, chips cooked in big iron kettles, turkey legs, Indian tacos and frybread, corn on the cob, apple sausage, and more, including ice cream, one of George Washington's favorite treats. Local clubs cook and serve these historic foods to fund their projects including the Rotary, Kappa Delta Phi, American Cherokee Confederacy, Knights of Columbus and the Fulton County Historical Society. Beverly Jackson and her family, Rochester, do the barbecue and sweet potato pie and also exhibit a frontier African-American home. The Mark Gropp family brings homemade fudge. Many people come to the festival just

The "remodeled" Masonic building is going to be returned to its former self, thanks to its owner, Diane Tesler. It has been Diane's dream for quite some time to restore the two-story building on Kewanna's Logan Street. Work has completed the past several weeks on removing the aluminum siding that was added in 1969 and the interior paneling and lowered ceilings that was accomplished in 1972. Accumulated rubbish was also removed from the interior.

As finances provide, the windows will be replaced, the front and entry way returned to its original form and the building will be painted.

Diane would like to have exterior and interior pictures of the hall as it was prior to 1966. If you have such pictures, please mail them to her at P.O. Box 341, Kewanna, IN 46939. She will be happy to return them to you after she scans/copies them.

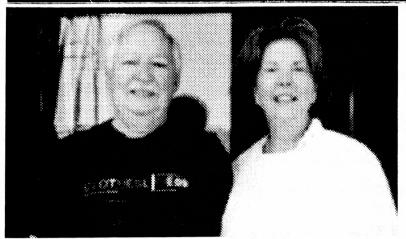

John Howell, A. D. Hickman Phillips and James Ware petitioned for the establishment of a Masonic Lodge in Kewanna in 1876. The first floor of the building was to be occupied by a drug store and the second floor as a Masonic Hall. The building was completed that same year at a cost of $1,900. John D. Howell, owner of the drug store paid $600 towards the building costs. The remaining $1,300 was guaranteed by Toner, Phillips and Ware.

board reviewed correspondence from month. The district received regular utility bills as well as bills from The Observer and Clark Aquatic. The district also received its land assessment from Pulaski County, a tax exemption from Pulaski County and a renewal of a tax exempt certificate from the Indiana Department of Revenue. A letter was also received from the Indiana Department of Environmental Management sewage plant (IDEM) on violations and actions to correct them. The district's plan is to cover the filtration pits to help keep the warmth inside in the winter as that is when the biggest problems come into play. The cold kills the bugs needed to filter the water. By covering the pits, it is hoped they will be able to survive. The board passed a motion to allow Gerald Porter and Paul Bradley now so there won't be anymore delays in getting this job completed before winter.

A new contract was signed with Gemini to be the billing agent for the district. A letter will be sent out to everyone informing them of the change and of the address for paying bills.

The second reading of the 2012 budget was read and approved.

There will be no meeting in September. The next meeting will be at 7 p.m. October 13 at the same location.
