Last Will and Testament

We, the Seniors of Kewanna High School, being of sound (?) mind and body, do hereby draw up our last will and testament.

I, Charlotte Gedcus, do hereby will my long-lost poodle hair-cut to J. Masteller.

I, Lowell Rans, do hereby will my ability to play the Sousaphone to Bob Newgent.

I, Dorothy Hubeny, do hereby will my slow driving ability to Dean Woolington.

I, Carroll Felder, do hereby will my pleasing smile to Bruce Rainey.

I, Dara Masteller, do hereby will my ability to snitch in English and Chemistry to Margaret Chizum.

I, Keith Harman, do hereby will my beautiful, late model car to Larry Anderson.

I, Pat Kumler, do hereby will the 1st chair in the clarinet section to Judy Miller.

I, Bill De Witt, do hereby will my ability to pass courses by the skin of my teeth to Dale Kubicki.

I, Norma Guyer, do hereby will my crutches to one of the "older" faculty members.

I, Wayne Baldwin, do hereby will my long beautiful (?) hair to Gene Wilson, lice and all.

I, Doris Kreamer, do hereby will my long hair to Kay Williamson.

I, George Hoover, do hereby will my ability to get excused from study hall to the annual room and my newspaper sports job to Larry Mason.

I, Shirley Swafford, do hereby will my shortness to Mary Henning.

I, Bill Werner, do hereby will my ability to drive a car to Dean Woolington.

I, Alice Starr, do hereby will my ability to date a certain boy to Wanda Latta.

I, Larry Zellers, do hereby will my intelligence to Paul Garver.

I, Sara Fairfield, do hereby will my ability to have laughing fits and my "slimness" to Ruth Ann Reinholt.

I, Jay Ingram, do hereby will my ability to gold brick in Shop Class to Doyne Talbott.

I, Alice Stingley, do hereby will my ability to upset my pocketbook in Mr. Darnell's study hall to Margaret Chizum.

I, Wayne Zellers, do hereby will my ability to be so quiet yet so smart to Floyd Latta.

I, Saraetta De Witt, do hereby will my ability to eat all the time and stay slim to Joan Engle.

I, Francis Hendrickson, do hereby will my ability to Ronnie Talbott my ability to get acquainted with certain girl's mothers, and to get one to paint his cords.

I, Maxine Reinholt, do hereby will my love for school, (of which I have none), to Jody Ness.

I, Jerry Plummer, do hereby will my ability to accuse Mr. Darnell of making a huge profit from the typing class to Fred Hines.

I, Mr. Harold Peck, sponsor of the class of 1955, do hereby will this class to the world, hoping that it can do more with them than I have ever been able to do.

May, 1975

Mr. Hal Peck

Dear Mr. Peck:

As sponsor of the class of 1955 we thought you might wish to know what has become of your beloved students.

By hiring a good detective agency the job was made easier, and here are the facts:

Wayne Baldwin: Wayne is the president of the largest automobile manufacturing companies in the world, the Chrysler Corporation.

Bill De Witt: While working in a lumber company, Bill acquired an interesting occupation--building wooden coffins. Bill has built coffins for some of the world's richest families.

Saraetta De Witt: Saraetta has become one of the finest guards in women's basketball. She plays for the Arkansas Travelers, and is the highest scoring player in the history of girls' basketball, averaging 150 points per game.

Sara Fairfield: Dr. Sara Fairfield intended to be a nurse, but with determination, she gained recognition as a great doctor.

Carroll Felder: Carroll has a large chain of hardware stores, the largest of which is in Kewanna, Indiana.

Charlotte Gedcus: Charlotte is the well-trained nurse of Dr. Fairfield, and an inspiration to Dr. Fairfield.

Norma Guyer: Norma hasn't gone too far from home. She owns a small dress shop in Kewanna, and besides being a mother, is active in social work.

Keith Harman: Keith is the manager of the Harman Globetrotters. Keith also has a chain of liquor stores, the largest in the world.

Francis Hendrickson: Francis is an Air Force hero. He holds the record for shooting down the most enemy MIGs.

George Hoover: This prophecy wouldn't be complete without mentioning George, now President of the United States. George is related distantly to the great Herbert Hoover.

Dorothy Hubeny: Dorothy is just an ordinary housewife, yet her husband manages a large farm in Fulton county. His name is Tom Miller.

Jay Ingram: Jay is making quite a name for himself. He is the wrestler by the name of "Oliver Twist". He is looking for his first victory.

Doris Kreamer: Doris is now a nationally acclaimed dancer and baton twirler. She has danced and twirled in many foreign countries and has appeared all over the United States.

Pat Kumler: People are proud of Pat. She is the first lady of our country. Pat is married, of course, to George Hoover. They have two little Hoovers running around the Whitehouse.

Dara Masteller: Dara is really whistlebait and is very successful. You might want to know what she does. She is a model for bathing suits.

Jerry Plummer: Jerry owns a 1300 acre farm. He holds the record in corn yield with a yield of 504 bushels to the acre in the five acre contest. He drives a Lincoln Capre and smokes cigars.

Lowell Rans: There we have the high scoring center for the Minn. Lakers. His feet aren't quite large enough to fill Mikan's shoes, but Lowell has broken many of Mikan's old records already.

Maxine Reinholt: Maxine is a movie star, playing along side of some of the best in the country. In her latest movie, she was eaten by a giant mouse, but as all stories end happily, she was saved by a prince charming. Her husband is the president of the Chrysler Corporation.

Alice Starr: Alice is a receptionist for a rich Wall Street business man. She is married and has a set of twins.

Alice Stingley: Being an under-cover agent for the U. S. Government is a very interesting job. Alice is working on a secret assignment now and we shouldn't say any more about it, so we won't.

Shirley Swafford: Shirley is the captain of the usherettes in the gigantic Key Theater in Kewana, Indiana.

Bill Werner: Bill is now in the used car and body and fender shop business. He is his own best customer. Bill became famous overnight when he won a cigar smoking contest, out-smoking his close friend, Dean Hattery, by five cigars.

Larry Zellers: Larry Joe, Tamer of the Tamarack. Larry Joe is working hard on a book that will benefit other farmers who own swampy land.

Wayne Zellers: After the death of Eienstein the world looked for a new mathematical genius and found this genius in Wayne Zellers.

I hope you have enjoyed this run down the lanes of memory, and I hope that this letter brings back many fond thoughts.

Very sincerely yours,

Veritirdaf Ritingdis
