The Annual Staff Presents The

Kewannian
1961

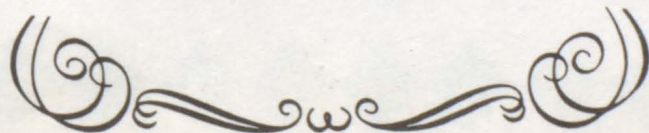

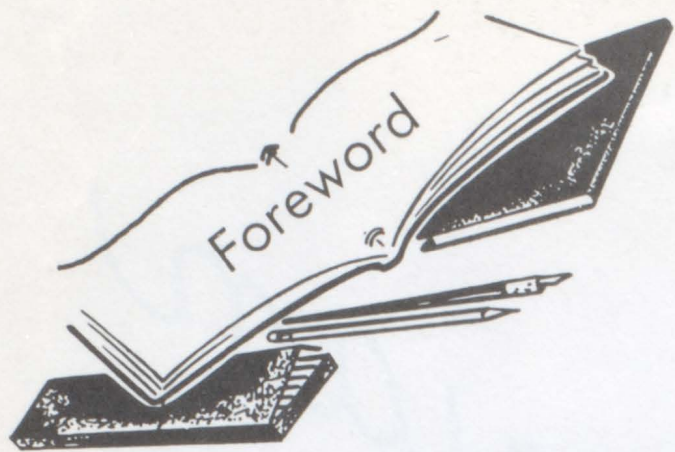

Yearbook of

Kewanna High School
Kewanna, Indiana

Printed by

Artmaster Yearbooks Inc.

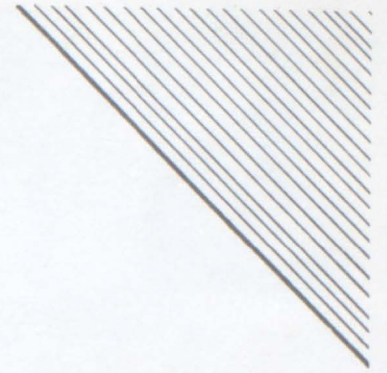

As the school year slowly slips away, we pause to catch a final glimpse of the many things we have done together. Our classmates, our friends, and our teachers have all played a part in this, our senior year.

With much time and effort, we have attempted to preserve the memories of this school year by the use of pictures and words. YOU, the students and faculty of K. H. S. made it; you lived it. Now we present it. Here it is - the 1961 "Kewannian."

Namana Waluma

Kewanna, Indiana

Dear Namana,

My assistant and I, after receiving your letter, traveled far into the future in our time machine and got a glimpse of the future of each of the persons in the class of "61." Some of them will certainly have changed by 1981, whether for the better or worse.

Here are the facts, cold and hard.

Robert Hoff Robert's long stride has gotten him somewhere since he was in school. In fact he is now doing missionary work in upper India. He is trying to follow in the footsteps of Dr. Tom Dooley. We hope he doesn't reach the old oak tree.

Dick Kumler Remember that mischievous guy called Dagwood? Well, he's still ornery but Nancy doesn't mind since they both are on a world tour with the Dixie Five. Nancy says that she keeps him out of mischief?? (Most of the time!)

Cheryl Worl Cheryl was always at the top of things and she still is. Last year she was elected President of the United States. She has found her first man who is 7' 2" tall.

Spencer Shull Spence now lives in and commands his homemade submarine. Barbara is first mate, and their sub is often submerged.

Bob McKinney Bob still owns the McKinney Circle Tavern in Indianapolis, but he also owns the Violet-Ray Laundromat. He's so rich that he owns three sets of teeth. He even has a cute blonde to brush them.

Nancy Troutman Would you like to know who is the most successful newspaper woman nowadays? None other than Nancy Troutman. She is now the President's press secretary, as well as a co-owner of the New York Tribune.

Lee Briney Lee now runs the monopoly joint in Kewanna. The name of it is the "Hooky Place," and it does a thriving business every school year.

Vivian Brown Vivian has progressed from "homemaker of tomorrow" to the "homemaker of today." She is now the new Betty Crocker and has discovered a formula for instant water. Just add water!

Alan Bitterling Well, Alan finally made it. He is now in orbit - not the way he was in high school - in a space ship doing monkey work for Uncle Sam. He always did like to star gaze.

Martha Hubeny After studying for a year at Mars, she has returned and is now a hair stylist in New York City. We asked her what the most popular hair color is now and she said "red plaid."

Paul Grube Paul now belongs to the YPUWWT (You pay us, we wreck them). This is for people who want their insurance money on their car. He never gets hurt because he always wears a horseshoe around his neck.

Marlene Landis She is now a top designer of men's bathing suits. These suits are for men 80 years and older. Since the life expectancy of man is now 120 years, there is a great demand for them.

Paul Rainey Paul is now a coastal farmer. He has several underwater truck patches, and he raises algae and herds sea horses.

Kay Fisher Besides being Cheryl's personal page, Kay works as a lobbyist for a modeling agency, and she also does figure work in the Pentagon.

Jim Walters Jim is the pitcher for the Cincinnati Red Fingers. He got his start by throwing quinces at signs.

Charlotte Skinner She is now in a Broadway drama, "Gone With the Breeze." She plays Charlotte O'Shara in the revised version.

Vivian Montz Vivian is now the co-manager of the Kewanna Spring Factory. She plans all the meals for the workers. Vivian also owns the green house and raises cane.

Earl Clyde He has founded a new factory in Kewanna that manufactures smoke. All the workers do is sit around and smoke cigarettes all day.

Jeanne Urbin She is now the most famous nurse in the United States. About ten years ago she helped take out Khrushchev's appendix. (Too bad he didn't survive!)

Janet Smith She is now the owner of the newly formed corp called the "Smithettes." They travel around the world giving twirling exhibitions; however, a change of names has caused some confusion.

Terry Troutman Terry owns the biggest gambling casino on the moon. It's the first and only business establishment there. He even has his own press, and we don't mean newspapers either.

Karen Whiteman She is now the biggest stock holder in Hiland's Hardware. So sorry to tell you, but Jerry broke his little toenail while playing basketball. Don't worry! He's in good hands with Nurse Karen.

Larry Plummer Always being the clown of his class, Larry has now taken Garry Moore's place on Broadway. The new Carol Burnett just happens to be very blonde.

We hope they have lived up to your expectations, and we also hope that any questions concerning the class of "61" have been answered.

Most truthfully yours,

Relletsam and Namrehs

Relletsam and Namrehs

P. S. Don't bother us again!!

Last Will and Testament

I, Alan Bitterling, being of little mind and weak body, do hereby will my ability to teach civics to Mr. Mathias, as he needs some ability desperately.

I, Lee Briney, being sound of mind (?) and body, do hereby will my seat in the study hall, the most uncomfortable contraption ever created by the great mind of man, to anyone unfortunate enough to get it.

I, Vivian Ann Brown, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my skirts to Carol Reinholt so she won't have to shorten hers, and I will my school lunches to anyone that can eat them!

I, Earl Clyde, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will anything I've got to anybody who wants it.

I, Kay Fisher, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will to my brother George my sixty minutes in the bathroom every school morning. (This along with his three minutes ought to give him time to comb his hair just right). And to any senior girl who likes to be interrupted by the telephone and teachers every five minutes, I will my fourth period telephone-sitting job.

I, Paul Grube, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my ability to get along with Mr. Tolbert to Bruce Mills.

I, Robert Hoff, being of weak mind and body, do hereby will my ability to keep my car between the fences, if not out of the ditches, to anyone who happens to go around the corners too fast.

I, Martha Hubeny, being of — mind (?) and body, do hereby will my short hair, dandruff, and all to Cynthia Hunter. Also I will my eyebrow cards to Marilyn McColley so she can do her eyebrows right.

I, Dick Kumler, being of mind (little good, mostly bad) and stable body, do hereby will Nancy Walters to her parents while I'm gone to the Navy. (On condition I get her back!)

I, Marlene Landis, being of sound (?) mind and body do hereby will my ability to get along with Mr. Darnell to Beckie Shoemaker.

I, Bob McKinney, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my ability to sleep with my eyes open to Danny Corbett who will have trouble staying awake in government class next year.

I, Vivian Ann Montz, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my grandma's '53 green Ford Ranch wagon, (that I'm always so careful with), to Lillian Montz and Trudy Shidaker. I hope this will not be a mistake?

I, Larry Plummer, do hereby will my ability to get along with Mr. Mathias to Bruce Mills for I'm sure he will need it next year!

I, Paul Rainey, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my ability to get along with Mr. Mathias as well as I do to (J.B.) John Brooks.

I, Spencer Shull, in sound body (in doubt of sound mind) will my ability to make people laugh to Mr. Leo Marshall, because he laughs alone.

I, Charlotte Skinner, will my natural blonde hair to Sandra Turner so she won't go in debt buying peroxide.

I, Janet Smith, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my ability to get along with Dick Kumler so well to Nancy Walters; and my talent to Jackie Vigus, since she envies mine so much!

I, Terry Troutman, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my seat in the study hall to Marion Foust, in hopes that it will keep him out of trouble. I also will my ability to get along with Mr. Tolbert to Wayne McPherson.

I, Nancy Troutman, being of sound mind and body (??), do hereby will and bequeath my French horn (property of K. H. S.) to its case, the first chair in the French horn section to Betty Hendrickson, and my personality (badly in need of improvement) to my sisters, Barbara and Marigene.

I, Jeanne Urbin, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my appetite to Kenan Cook and my dirty sneakers to Nancy Walters and Jackie Vigus in case they need an extra one.

I, Jim Walters, being of sound mind and body (?), do hereby will my seat in second year typing class, to any boy who wants to be in a class with seven senior girls.

I, Karen Sue Whiteman, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will to all the prospective seniors girls of 1962, the ability to hold your head high, to disregard what any underclassmen may say to discriminate you, to enjoy your senior year and get everything out of it you possibly can, regardless of what others say, for, believe me, you will need it!

I, Cheryl Diane Worl, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my school lunches (which I don't eat) to Mr. Darnell, because it worries him so much!

We, the Seniors of 1961 do hereby will our beloved sponsor, Mr. Mathias, to the seventh grade class of 1962. We hope they enjoy (and pester) him as much as we have.
