Dedication

We, the seniors of 1963 of Kewanna High School, wish to dedicate our annual, the "Kewannian", to Maurice Tolbert.

Having been our class sponsor for the past six years, we feel he is very deserving of this honor.

To him goes our thanks for all the work and support he has given us, especially in our senior year.

Senior Prophecy

Coach Tolbert is now the manager of the Harlem Globecirclers. He is now on one of his numerous orbital flights. The only thing he left in our world was his personal life diary. We hope you will enjoy this small episode.

Dear Diary,

Today, June 23, 1973, I, Maurice Tolbert, have decided to take an extended tour around the world. This trip is necessary to cure a nervous condition I have developed. I have hired Navy Commander Robert Mills Scott II to pilot me on my cruise. We are well equipped on Cammander Scott's yacht. It is the most exquisite of all Bo's Marine. Among our luxuries is a built in hi-fi including numerous recordings of James Hurley. I even have "Hep Cat's" latest record, "You Ain't Nothing but a Hound Dog", which has sold over a million copies.

JUNE 24: Our first stop is on the Riviera where Pat Pier and Beth Bayless own and operate a famous modeling agency. Beth models the latest bikinis, while first-rate designer Carl Foglesong looks on. Pat keeps herself busy running after beachcomber Paul Ray.

JUNE 26: Today we sailed directly to Rome. I didn't realize people sailed to Rome but with Bo at the wheel we made it. While on a sight seeing jaunt we ventured into one of Italy's most prosperous barber shops. Marion "Red" Foust, the tonsorial artist, insisted that I have a red rinse put on my hair, but with my beautiful black, wavy hair I just had to say NO!!!

JUNE 30: Today arriving in Japan I visited the Gisha House of Jane Vigus and her co-owner Jerry. WOW those Gisha girls!!

JULY 3: Today we bumped into Hawaii, and I mean bumped into! Guess who taught me how to hula. You guessed it, Trudy Shidaker and Barbara Masteller. After a small chat, they directed me to their old classmates Connie Greer and Linda Lincoln's little grass shack where they make thier famous grass skirts.

JULY 7: Before returning to the mainland, we decided to visit Alaska where we met one of our most promising scientists. George Johnson is now perfecting a Super-Duper Snow Scooper.

JULY 10: We decided to drop anchor in New York Bay. As we were enjoying the scenery of New York's harbor we had a MINOR accident. After hitting the Statue of Liberty, I was rushed to the emergency ward of a modern New York hospital. I was put under the care of Dr. Richard Graffis and Head Nurse Judy Robbins.

After being x-rayed by Marilyn Appleman, I was informed that I had no broken bones. I was advised to spend the afternoon resting, but after my two visitors, Tom and Wayne (owners of the Mitchell and McPherson Mortuary Mansions) I decided to leave the following morning. They seemed all too anxious to get their hands on me.

JULY 11: I woke up this morning feeling grand, as if I had the world in my hand. As I was being dismissed, Medical Secretary Barbara Troutman gave me my bill, I practically had a relapse!

To soothe my nervous condition, I entered the Playboy Club, managed by James Bitterling. Entertaining the playboys were the famous "Bunnies". The leading bunny was "Bunny" Betty Hendrickson. Glancing through the audience, I recognized Dick Carlson. I noticed Dick has changed from pinching pennies to squeezing nickels.

JULY 12: Today I boarded a plane from New York to Chicago. The service was quite poor, so I decided to go up front to investigate. The reason was evident, Stewardess Lillian Montz was sitting on Pilot Terry's lap.

I was met at the airport by John Gedcus. John now operates the only ultra-modern cab service in Chicago. John designed his own electrical cab.

Next, John drove me to the large exclusive office of Keith Troutman. Opening the door, I saw Keith sitting on the floor, playing with an electric train. He always wanted to be an engineer.

JULY 13: Back to good old Indiana! On my way to Kewanna, I passed the large prosperous farm owned by Fred and Joyce Luhnnow. They raise the biggest and juiciest watermelons in the entire state--and that's not all they're raising!

Not far from the Luhnnow farm, I saw Bruce Baker and Larry Geisler still running around in the "Roach". They haven't given up stealing watermelons yet.

Heading down the main drag, I noticed Betty Lou's Beauty Salon. It was a quaint, attractive shop.

As I left for Logansport, and "Home Sweet Home", I felt that Kewanna was in good hands with Night Watchman Jerry Emmons looking on. At least now Jerry has an excuse for sleeping during the day.

We hope that you enjoyed reading this as much as we did after we found the diary's key.

Last Will and Testament

I, RICHARD GRAFFIS, do hereby will my athletic abilities to Marvin Good, and cow-calling abilities to Mike Hogan.

I, PAT PIER, being of sound(?) mind and body do hereby will my ability to put up with a class of eleven boys (business law) to any girl daring enough to try it.

I, TOM MITCHELL, being of sound mind and all that rot, do hereby will my basketball uniform (No. 23) to anyone who can fulfill its requirements.

I, MARILYN APPLEMAN, hereby will my second seat in study hall to whoever wants to use their valuable time gazing out the window watching life across the tracks.

I, JANE VIGUS, being of dilapidated mind and body, do hereby will my red hair to any nut that cares to tangle with it. P.S. Please return in two weeks, I'd hate to run around bald the rest of my life!

I, JUDY ROBBINS, being of sound (?) mind and body, hereby will my ability to be teased by a certain teacher about a certain person to Vicki Evans. (As if she isn't teased enough!)

I, BETTY LOU NEWGENT, being of unsound mind and body, do hereby will my rubber-band fights with Mr. Ginn to Larry Robbins.

I, LILLIAN MONTZ, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my ability to remain calm and even-tempered at basketball games to Susan Seidel (since she doesn't yell much anyhow).

I, LINDA LINCOLN, do hereby will my place in the mirror in the home economics room to Sandra Turner, since she has it anyway.

I, KEITH TROUTMAN, will my "whatchamadigger" for the "doosenwhapper" that goes on top of the "thingamajig" to anybody who wants a "whatchamadigger" for the "doosenwhapper" that goes on top of the "thingamajig".

I, BRUCE BAKER, being of feeble mind and small body, do hereby will my short legs to George Hilficker, and my ability to cause trouble to anyone unfortunate enough to get it.

I, JOYCE ANDERSON, do hereby will and bequeath the first seat in the study hall to Betty Baldwin, and my shyness to Patricia Walters.

I, MARION FOUST, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my sound mind and body to Dave Miller.

I, JIM BITTERLING, being of sound mind and body, will my fast hands to anyone who's dumb enough to want them.

I, CONNIE GREER, being of little mind and sound body, do hereby will my leftover papers and pencils to Mrs. Moyer, for all she used writing Linda and I excuses the last period.

I, BETTY HENDRICKSON, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will all my old clothes to Sandra Turner since they wouldn't fit her and she doesn't need them anyway.

I, JAMES HURLEY, being of very weak mind and very (??) body, do hereby will nothing. I want to keep it all.

I, RICHARD CARLSON, being of sound mind (?) and body, will my ability to hot-rod my car to John Newgent and Jerry Granholm.

I, GEORGE JOHNSON, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my ability to get along with teachers and my seat in the study hall to Tim Troutman.

I, BETH BAYLESS, being of depreciated mind and body, do hereby will my ten minutes each morning in the bathroom to Terry.

I, JERRY EMMONS, being of sound mind and body, will my ability to sleep in third period study hall to anyone who can get away with it.

I, CARL FOGLESONG, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my ability to dress quickly for ball practice to Mike Hogan.

I, TRUDY SHIDAKER, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my vocal cords to Mike Hogan, because at the rate he's going he'll need a new pair by this time next year.

I, BARBARA MASTELLER, being of sound mind and body, will my privilege to wear clippies in my hair to school to Susie Farris.

I, FRED LUHNOW, being of weak mind and huge body, hereby will my ability to get along with English teachers and not get kicked out of a certain one's study hall to John Vigus and Tim Troutman because I think they need it.

I, ROBERT SCOTT, being of sound mind (?) and body, hereby will my ability to be in a typing class with six girls to any boy who wants it.

I, BARBARA TROUTMAN, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my ability to be seen before I'm heard to Kenny Robbins and Donnie Cowles.
