DEDICATION

We, the Seniors of 1965 of Kewanna High, wish to dedicate our annual, 'Kewannian'', to our parents and our sponsor, Mr. Ed Pinder.

Having supported our class for the past six years, we feel that our overwrought parents are very deserving of this honor.

To Mr. Pinder, our sponsor for more than four years, go our thanks and appreciation for all the work and support he has given to us, especially in our Senior year.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Sherri Evans, being of very sound mind and weak body, hereby will my Great?? Riviera to anyone fortunate enough to want it, because it has cancer and has but a short time to live.

I, Bob Bitterling, being of superb' mind and muscular body, will my little green GTO to Kenny Robbins and my quick temper and nervousness to his brother "Lump", and my litness to Steve Baldwin. I also will my heart and affection to Racheal.

I, Betty Graffis, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath my "natural" red hair, my Japanese shift, and my nickname, Susie, to John Agnew who has always seemed to be fascinated by them.

I, Curtis Menk, being of highly intelligent mind and slightly dehydrated body do hereby will my ability to ride a motorcycle to Herbie Zellers, my ability to not wreck it to John Seidel, and my ability to keep out of trouble on it to Marvin Martin. I also would like to will my patience and mild disposition to Racheal.

I, Linda Harper, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my desk in the study hall to Susan Donathan and my ability to keep a straight face to Mrs. Sawyer, who seems to need it at times. I also will my ability to keep out of trouble (most of the time) to my brother Rickie, and anyone else crazy enough to want it.

I, Mitchell Latta, being of unsound mind and body, do hereby will my ability to get along with Mrs. Sawyer to anybody who may be in the position to use it.

I, Cynthia Hunter, being of unsound mind and of feeble body, do hereby will all my memories of my senior year to my sister, Nedra, if she can find the key to my diary. I will my ability to get along with the teachers to any underclassman who needs it desperately, if I had the ability in the first place.

I, Nick Knefelter, being of sound mind and body do hereby will nothing to nobody, because I don't hate anyone that much!

I, Penny Skersick, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath my name to Brenda Farris so that she'll never run out of cents (sense?) and I also will my ability to get out of Mr. Carswell's study halls in hopes that she won't run out of excuses.

I, Alan McPherson, being of sound mind and body do hereby will nothing for I have nothing, except my desk with all the bolts falling out of it and any fortunate senior of next year can have it.

I, Joan Markley, being of broad mind and small body, do hereby will to Beth Ann Reason my first clarinet chair in band. Also to anyone who wants it, my ability to slow the cheer-block down by out-yelling them.

I, John Good, being of able mind and sound body do hereby will and bequeath to Don Cowles my seven-minute cigarette break just before Civics class and my life membership card to the Academy of Fine Arts and Billiards.

I, Jane Lord, being of sound mind, do hereby will and bequeath nothing to anybody for the simple reason that I need all I've got and more.

I, Laurie Hilficker, being of sound mind and body do hereby will any abilities I might have to anyone who wants it. I also will any and all abilities I might have that may make this senior year the most fun of any, to Markeeta and Colleen. I also will to my parents some peace and quiet which they will receive only after graduation.

I, DeVon Overmyer being of sound mind and body do hereby will my ability to be an introvert to Marvin Good. With it, he may stop to think about what he is going to say before he says it.

I, Betty Ness, being of sound mind and body do hereby will my abilities (whatever they may be) to anyone that wants them. I also will to the household in which I reside some peace and quiet which will come only after graduation.

I, Karen Martin, being of sound mind and body do hereby will my seat next to Marvin Good in study hall to anyone who is corny enough to understand and enjoy some of Marvin's originals.

I, Don Cochran, being of sound mind and body do hereby will my ability to get along with teachers to anyone unfortunate enough to need it.

I, Sally Masteller, being of sound mind and body do hereby will my bass clarinet (since it isn't mine in the first place) to Brenda Farris and Joy Urbin.

I, William J. Lamb, hoping to be of sound mind and sturdy body, do hereby will my supply of "Superman" comics to the school library as reference material; my parking place under the shade trees to Jeff Moore, since he has already taken it anyway; my box of paper clips to it's rightful owner, Miss Liming; my typing eraser from summer school to anyone who can break my record of 28 words and 32 errors; my ability to not get along with Mrs.

Sawyer to John Vigus; and my increasing dislike for school to Don Cowles.

I, Vicki Harper, being of sound mind and body do hereby will my ability to get along with Mrs. Sawyer to Don Cowles; and to Shirley Hoff my ability to get along with her brother.

I, Mary Lou Wilson, being of sound (?!) mind and body do hereby will my 1957 Chevy and also my great driving abilities to my brother Mark because I'm sure he is going to need and use both of them.

I, Almetta Ann Zuck, being of questionable mind and body do hereby will my reputation as a careful? driver to Ron Warfield, just in case he needs it. I also will my ability to work in the library, or my appearance of working, to Susan Donathan, as if she needs it.

I, Phil Smitley being of weak mind and strong body do hereby will all the girls at the lake to Jeff since he has them all anyhow, and the back seat on the bus to Bill Mitchell and Terry Bayless because neither one can fill it alone. Also all my time in the bathroom to my sisters and brother to fight over.

I, M. E. Hogan, being of sound mind and of some body, do hereby will first chair trombone to Jim Ley and the "Ghost of good Bob", also my ability to get along in fifth period study hall to Don O., Greg A., Jeff S. and Don R., my seventh grade buddies.

I, Bill Shull, being of sound mind and body do will my ability to understand the opposite sex to Tom Overmyer, who will need it.

SENIOR PROPHECY

October 31, 1975

Dear Mr. Pinder,

Well, it has been ten years since the class of '65 from good old Kewanna has graduated. As I was touring the United States this year, I was surprised to run into many of those old "grads."

I started my trip from Washington, D.C., where I visited our first woman President of these United States, Karen Martin. She informed me that her personal hairdresser is none other than Nick Klinefelter. Karen has Devon Overmyer as her Secretary of Treasury.

After leaving Washington, I stopped in New York. Here, I saw William Lamb and Mitchell Latta running their big corporation: The Lightning Lamb and Latta Fox Fur Factory. Also in New York, I went to Carnegie Hall where I heard a world famous orchestra led by "maestro" Mike Hogan. My visit to the United Nations, led me to Cindy Hunter. She is working as a Spanish interpreter. I asked Cindy what Betty Jean Graffis was doing in this world. She said that Betty Jean is now a "strawberry blonde" math professor for a men's university. Amazing? Not really.

In Pittsburgh, Pa., I ran into a big factory owned by Sherri Evans. It was called: Jakes' Rakes. I wonder why!? Sherri gave me the latest on several of her past classmates. She said that John Good is running a chain of Deacon's Pool Halls across the U.S.A. and that Alan McPherson was teaching his second grade students the art of combing their hair like a "Beatle". Sherri said that Vicki and Linda are now a singing twosome. They call themselves, The Harper Sisters.

I couldn't wait to ask Sherri about Laura Hilficker and Betty Lou Ness. She shocked me when she said that they are in the deep jungles of dark Africa, working for the Peace Corps. At least it's more peaceful in the States with those two in the jungles! I also had to know what had happened to Jane "Winamac" Lord. Sherri said she is running a surplus store called "Jane's Bargain Store." Her favorite song is: "Where can your money buy more than your money can?" Jane's-Jane's Bargain Store?

Mary Lou Wilson is Jane's special secretary, and with all the money Jane's hauling in, she needs one. Dr. Masteller, you know her as Sally, walked in as I was talking to Sherri. She told me that Penny Skersick and Joan Markley are famous cheerleaders for the "Globe Trotters."

Just before leaving Sherri and Sally, they both told me that Ann Zuck is working in the great John F. Kennedy Library. Is this the right job for such a great Republican fan? After leaving, I went to Chicago. Here is where I met a very prominent young man, who is the successful editor of a famous sex magazine: Bill Shull. Bill's assistant editor is Don Cochran.

From Chicago, I went straight to Kewanna. I saw Bob Bitterling and Curtis Menk were still riding their cycles up-and-down those hills at Crabb's Woods. When I learned that Phil Smitley had become the new town marshall, I knew Kewanna was in good hands. So, I left and headed toward Africa. (I decided to join Betty Lou and Laura.)

As Always,
Zelda Grunch
