"Slices of Life"

Finding the fountain – during prime time

People have searched for the fountain of youth since the beginning of time – or at least since their middle ages.

I am ready to announce here, today, the source of the fountain. I wish I could claim credit for the discovery, but it was my sister's find. In her opinion, youth isn't so much about wrinkles, gray hair, sagging skin or broken hips. It's about being hip.

"You stay young by being trendy," she said. "You've got to know what's going on."

The key to knowing what's going on has been under our noses and as close as our living rooms for the last 50 years. The secret to eternal youth involves nothing more than thinking inside the box. The box in question? A normal, everyday TV.

According to my sister, the solution lies specifically with sitcoms. To stay hip, one must watch the new ones – no reruns of classic Cheers or Seinfeld episodes will do. Staying current is key to keeping you cool.

"You watch those old ones and you're going to be trapped in the '80's," she said.

I nodded, agreeing with her. Only trouble is, I'm still a fan of Friends and Everybody Loves Raymond. This, says my sister, is not good enough. It's not even close.

"You put your channel on those and you'll get stuck; the world will move forward and you'll never catch up," she warned. "Pretty soon you'll find yourself tucking in your shirt and wearing a belt, even though you're living in a world where everyone else goes untucked and unbelted."

I looked down at my waist, yanked my T-shirt out over my belt and hoped she hadn't noticed.

Like the rest of us from the Brady Bunch generation, I've lived a few years and have watched the world evolve onscreen, so I know what she's talking about. I remember Opie Taylor and Beaver Cleaver and then that same Opie, years later, as Ritchie in Happy Days. I watched Samantha Stephens wriggle her bewitched nose and Mary Tyler Moore throw her hat in the air. I identified with Marsha Brady, loved Alex Keaton's family ties, adventured along with the Huxtables and totally understood why Joanie loved Chachi.

I've laughed with them all. Along the way, I was gleaned fashion tips from the small screen (even though I didn't realize it at the time). Mini skirts, shoulder pads and big hair – they were all role-modeled for me by sitcom stars.

From sitcoms and beyond, I grew up with the classics. Cheers. Carol Burnett. Seinfeld. Star Trek.

They were trendy and helped to keep me hip. Now, it seems, they only age me. They send me back in time at warp speed – from hip to drip in the blink of an eye. I'm all for being as cool as the next soccer mom, but must confess I've slipped in the last few years. If I want to keep on fraternizing with my cool sister, I'm going to have to kick it up a notch.

Even though Raymond may have the best jokes on TV, this issue isn't about jokes. At my age, I've got to worry about trends. And fashion. And keeping up with the cougars and desperate housewives. Repeat the mantra: youth at all costs.

I am doing my best to convince myself all this is true, but I'm not sure hip is the answer. There's something to be said for a face that's lived a full life and isn't ashamed to show it. Sitcoms may help us retain our youthful coolness by showing us the newest trends, but I think we may be overlooking one important factor.

Sitcoms are funny. And they don't call them laugh lines for nothing.

Public Notice

NOTICE OF REAL PROPERTY TAX SALE

Fulton County Indiana Beginning 10:00:00 AM, 9/24/2010 Commissioners Meeting Room Time Fulton County

Pursuant to the laws of the Indiana General Assembly, notice is hereby given that the following described property is listed for sale for delinquent taxes and/or special assessments. The county auditor and county treasurer will apply on or after 9/7/2010 for a court judgment against the tracts or real property for an amount that is not less than the amount set out below and for an order to sell the tracts or real property at public auction to the highest bidder, subject to the right of redemption. Any defense to the application for judgment must be filed with the Fulton County CIRCUIT Court and served on the county auditor and treasurer before 9/7/2010. The court will set a date for a hearing at least seven (7) days before the advertised date of sale and the court will determine any defenses to the application for judgment at the hearing. The county auditor and the county treasurer are entitled to receive all pleadings, motions, petitions, and other filings related to the defense to the application for judgment.

Such sale will be held on 9/24/2010 at the Commissioners Meeting Room and that sale will continue until all tracts and real property have been offered for sale.

Property will not be sold for an amount which is less than the sum of:

- (A) the delinquent taxes and special assessments on each tract or item of real property; and
(B) the taxes and special assessments on the real property that are due and payable in the year of the sale, whether or not they are delinquent; and
(C) all penalties due on the delinquencies; and
(D) an amount prescribed by the county auditor that equals the sum of:

(1) twenty-five($25) for postage and publication costs; and

(2) any other costs incurred by the county that are directly attributable to the tax sale; and

(E) any unpaid costs due under IC 6-1.1-24-2(b) from a prior tax sale; and

No property listed below shall be sold if, at any time before the sale, the Total Amount for Judgment is paid in full. If the real property is sold in the tax sale, the amount required to redeem such property will be 110% of the minimum bid for which the tract or real property was offered at the time of sale, as required by IC 6-1.1-24-5 if redeemed not more than six (6) months after the date of sale, or 115% of the minimum bid for which the tract or real property was offered at the time of sale, as required by IC 6-1.1-24-5 if redeemed more than six (6) months after the date of sale, plus the amount by which the purchase price exceeds the minimum bid on the real property plus ten percent (10%) per annum on the amount by which the purchase price exceeds the minimum bid on the property. All taxes and special assessments upon the property paid by the purchaser subsequent to the sale, plus 10% per annum interest on those taxes and special assessments, will also be required to be paid to redeem such property.

In addition, IC 6-1.1-25-2 (e) states the total amount required for redemption may include the following costs incurred and paid by the purchaser or the purchaser's assignee or the county before redemption: (1) The attorney's fees and cost of giving notice under IC 6-1.1-25-4.5. (2) The costs of title search or examining and update the abstract of title for the tract or item of real property. The period of redemption shall expire on Monday, September 26, 2011 for an initial offering. The period of redemption may expire Monday, January 24, 2011 for certificates not sold.

If the tract or item of real property is sold for an amount more than the minimum bid and the property is not redeemed, the owner of record of the property who is divested of ownership at the time the tax deed is issued may have a right to the tax sale surplus.

The Auditor and Treasurer specifically reserve the right to withhold from the sale any parcel which has been listed in error, or which otherwise becomes ineligible for sale either prior to 9/24/2010 or during the duration of the sale.

This notice of real property tax sale, and the tax sale itself are undertaken and will be conducted pursuant to the requirements of the laws of the State of Indiana which regulate the sale of land for delinquent taxes, pursuant to I.C. 6-1.1-24-1 et seq.

The County does not warrant the accuracy of the street address or common description of the property, and a misstatement in the key number or street address does not invalidate an otherwise valid sale.

Kewanna/Union Twp. Library News...

Nicholas Hughes

In recent months, we have found many interesting things, from letters to missing rooms, within these walls. And each week, I try and share these discoveries with you, the library patrons. Rather than these light-hearted communications, this week, I would like to share something a bit more serious with you.

I have seen a marked increase in the amount of users this library welcomes daily since I took over as director. Yet, I know that there are many more of you out there in this community. And, with the amount of book donations we have received, I know that many of you read. Perhaps I should be taking these as suggestions in ways to diversify the collection. What I want you to know is that many of these authors and genres, I am already ordering for your library. Your donations will ALWAYS be welcome, but I also wish you to be aware of the collection we currently offer.

Come in and visit.

Also, in the past week, we have had a position open up here at the library. We are looking for a new library clerk. The job description can be found in the want-ads of this paper. I just want to emphasize that any applicants must be comfortable working with the public and children in particular. If you are interested, please stop in for an application.

On to brighter news. We have new items in. By the time you read this, everything should be processed. In other words, it will be all be on the shelves, so come and get them. I do encourage you to come and look at one book in particular, called Weird Indiana. It discusses interesting and unique places around this state. While, I personally, do not have much familiarity with this book, the series in general (there is one for each state, plus a nationwide book) makes for an interesting read.

Finally, I encourage you come in and speak with me. I am new to this community, and while admittedly horrible with names, I do remember faces. Come in, talk with me, and give me an idea of what you would like to see. This library is, and should be, a community center. All are welcome.

Town & Country CHATTER...

By: Julie Brown Ph.: (574) 653-2451

First thing: Mike, last winter I tried sending our snow and cold temperatures back up to you—now the opposite. I know you do not need all of our rain. You can certainly take all of the heat you want, though. We have had more than enough this summer.

Don Weller of Kathleen, Georgia; his girlfriend, Linda; and her dog, Pebbles, recently spent several days in the area visiting with friends and family. The highlight of their visit was attending a long-existing family outing.

Barb and Tom LaFollette and their great-grandson, Eli Lopez, traveled to LaPorte Saturday, July 31. They were guests of the LaFollettes' son and his family, Chris and Nita LaFollette, Michele, Michael, Rebecca, Elizabeth and Thomas. Everyone had a wonderful time helping Michele celebrate her birthday.

Joining her for a visit were her children and their families, Roger and Julie Wentzel, Nicholas, Peter and Katya of Falls Church, Virginia; Tim and Jeri Wentzel of Hicksville, Ohio; Becky and Mike Slentz, John, Rachel and Matthew of Butler; Don and Amy Wentzel, Alexander, Ryan and Derek of Fishers; and Carol and Chris Holmquest of Munster.

Ruth Cogdill. Tim's sister, Jane Teeter, had planned on coming as well, but was unable to make it. The day was the anniversary of Ruth's son, Mark Cogdill's, passing. Ruth and Tim spent the day remembering and reflecting on the family's days in Kewanna.

Helen Whiteman had a working visitor Monday. Stopping by in the evening after work was her granddaughter, Julie Nies of Winamac. The ladies enjoyed a nice chat while Julie took care of some chores.

The boys did not come this time, but Tina promised to bring them for a visit before summer was over.
