IT'S FESTIVAL TIME AGAIN

(A Message From the Chairman)

It's Festival time again in Kewanna, Indiana, and you can feel it in the air. Kids come up to me asking, "How Many More Days Till The Festival"? Excitement and the hub bub of final preparations are seen and felt everywhere. Yes, the 1970 Kewanna Harvest Festival will be the 12th annual consecutive Festival. The Festival was started by me in 1958 and has grown each year. Over 60 people are working on committees for the 1970 Festival. I want to thank all who have helped me in the past and are helping this year. I hope 20 years from now, kids will still come up to me and ask "How Many More Days Till The Festival"?

All the members of the Committee, myself and the Kewanna community welcome you to our annual Kewanna Harvest Festival.

From the Chairman of the Kewanna Harvest Festival
FRANCIS E. SANDERS

These Harvestaires are real "cool cats". The local talent group will be performing daily.

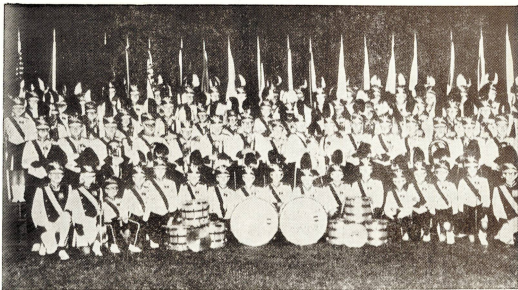

Much time and work are involved in preparing floats for the parade.

These youngsters are winners of the 1969 Kiddie Parade.

This is the Boy Scout Color Guard as they led the 1969 Kiddie Parade.

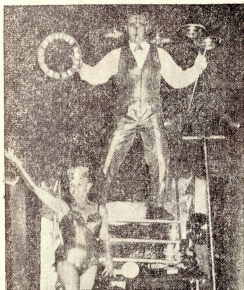

The Maple City Cadets Drum and Bugle Corps will be one of the marching units in Saturday's parade.

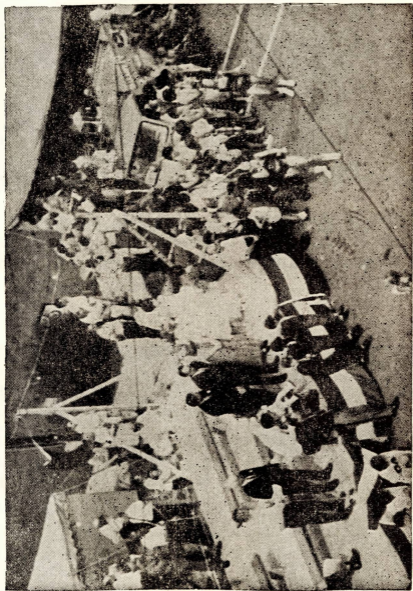

Komar the Hindu Fakir will perform Hindu torture tricks on stage at 4 and 8 p.m. Saturday.

Miss Debi Grimm of Rochester, the new Miss Teen-Age Indiana, will appear in Saturday's parade.

The Kilroys and Kalmas Will Be Friday's Free Acts Performing At 4 and 8:30 p.m.

REVIEWING STAND

This float, entered by the Pulaski County Farm Bureau, took first place honors at last year's parade.
