The purpose of health care is to allow the body's wisdom to do the healing without interfering with this process. Chiropractors allow your body to heal by removing nervous system interference caused by shifted vertebrae in your spine. When vertebrae become misaligned they irritate or choke the nerve and the "electronic" messaging system of your body does not work. Specific chiropractic adjustments reposition the vertebrae to allow healing.

Stay Fire Smart! Don't Get Burned

Fire Prevention Week is October 4 - 10

Fire Prevention Week is October 4 - 10. The National Fire Protection Association (NFPA), along with local fire departments and other safety advocates nationwide are urging people to Stay Fire Smart! Don't Get Burned.

Fire departments responded to an estimated 1.5 million fires in 2008. These fires resulted in 3,320 civilian fire fatalities, 16,705 civilian fire injuries and an estimated $15.5 billion in direct property loss.

"Every 22 seconds a fire department responds to a fire somewhere in the United States," said Lorraine Carli, NFPA's vice president of communications. "Fires kill roughly 3,000 people each year and injure thousands. These statistics are especially tragic because most fires can be prevented and the deaths and injuries associated with them can be avoided. Fire Prevention Week is dedicated to focusing on important safety information that will help you stay safe from fire year round."

This year's campaign, Stay Fire Smart! Don't Get Burned focuses on ways to prevent fires, and the deaths, injuries, and property loss they cause. Eighty-four percent of all fire deaths were caused by home fires. By providing valuable information on fire and burn prevention and safety tips, the campaign aims to help the public keep their homes and the people who live there safe from fire and burns.

NFPA resources available for Fire Prevention Week:

- Video PSA featuring Jim Shannon, NFPA's president

Visit <http://www.firepreventionweek.org/> for more tips and safety information.

NFPA has been the official sponsor of Fire Prevention Week since 1922. According to the National Archives and Records Administration's Library Information Center, Fire Prevention Week is the longest running public health and safety observance on record. The President of the United States has signed a proclamation proclaiming a national observance during that week every year since 1925.

NFPA has been a worldwide leader in providing fire, electrical, building, and life safety to the public since 1896. The mission of the international nonprofit organization is to reduce the worldwide burden of fire and other hazards on the quality of life by providing and advocating consensus codes and standards, research, training, and education. Fulton County Indiana
Beginning 10:00 AM
October 20, 2009
Commissioners Room
Fulton County

Pursuant to the laws of the Indiana General Assembly, notice is hereby given that the following described property is listed for sale for delinquent taxes and/or special assessments. The county auditor and county treasurer will apply on or after Friday, October 02, 2009 for a court judgment against the tracts or real property for an amount that is not less than the amount set out below and for an order to sell the tracts or real property at public auction to the highest bidder, subject to the right of redemption. Any defense to the application for judgment must be filed with the Fulton County CIRCUIT Court before Friday, October 02, 2009. The court will set a date for a hearing at least seven (7) days before the advertised date of sale and the court will determine any defenses to the application for judgment at the hearing. Such sale will be held Tuesday, October 20, 2009 at the Commissioners Room and that sale will continue until all tracts and real property have been offered for sale. Property will not be sold for an amount which is less than the sum of:

- (A) the delinquent taxes and special assessments on each tract or item of real property; and
(B) the taxes and special assessments on the real property that are due and payable in the year of the sale, whether or not they are delinquent; and
(C) all penalties due on the delinquencies; and
(D) an amount prescribed by the county auditor that equals the sum of:

- (1) twenty-five ($25) for postage and publication costs; and
(2) any other costs incurred by the county that are directly attributable to the tax sale; and
(E) any unpaid costs due, under subsection (b), from a prior tax sale; and

No property listed below shall be sold if, at any time before the sale, the Total Amount for Judgment is paid in full. If the real property is sold in the tax sale, the amount required to redeem such property will be 110% of the minimum bid for which the tract or real property was offered at the time of sale, as required by IC 6-1.1-24-5 if redeemed not more than six (6) months after the date of sale, or 115% of the minimum bid for which the tract or real property was offered at the time of sale, as required by IC 6-1.1-24-5 if redeemed more than six (6) months after the date of sale, plus the amount by which the purchase price exceeds the minimum bid on the real property plus ten percent (10%) per annum on the amount by which the purchase price exceeds the minimum bid on the property. All taxes and special assessments upon the property paid by the purchaser subsequent to the sale, plus 10% per annum interest on those taxes and special assessments, will also be required to be paid to redeem such property. In addition, IC 6-1.1-25-2 (e) states the total amount required for redemption may include the following costs incurred and paid by the purchaser or the purchaser's assignee or the county before redemption: (1) The attorney's fees and cost of giving notice under IC 6-1.1-25-4.5. (2) The costs of title search or examining and update the abstract of title for the tract or item of real property. The period of redemption shall expire one year from the date of sale for an initial offering. Additional penalties that are due as a result of the 2008 second installment tax collection have not been added to the minimum bids as of this date. Those amounts will also be added as part of the minimum bid for the tax sale. The period of redemption shall expire one hundred twenty (120) days from the date of sale for certificates not sold.

If the tract or item of real property is sold for an amount more than the minimum bid and the property is not redeemed, the owner of record of the property who is divested of ownership at the time the tax deed is issued may have a right to the tax sale surplus.

The Auditor and Treasurer specifically reserve the right to withhold from the sale any parcel which has been listed in error, or which otherwise become ineligible for sale either prior to Tuesday, October 20, 2009 or during the duration of the sale. This notice of real property tax sale, and the tax sale itself are undertaken and will be conducted pursuant to the requirements of the laws of the State of Indiana which regulate the sale of land for delinquent taxes, pursuant to I.C. 6-1.1-24-1 et seq.

The Auditor's Office does not warrant the accuracy of the key numbers or street addresses published herein and any misstatement in the key number or street address does not invalidate an otherwise valid sale.

Town & Country CHATTER...

By: Julie Brown Ph.: (574) 653-2451

Jerry and Kay Brown were in Rochester Monday evening, Sept. 21. They had an exciting time watching their granddaughter, Kaelee Smith, play in a volleyball game.

Lori Leach has been keeping busy this week. She has been helping her daughter and son-in-law, Kandi and Brian Evers, with a dry-walling project, taking care of the grandchildren, helping at the Kewanee Kafé, doing some cooking with Jill Meneeley and tackling several jobs related to the fall festival.

Mike Cogdill of Eagle River, Alaska arrived Thursday, Sept. 24, for an extended stay with his mother, Ruth Cogdill.

Beth and Ray Weller had company over the weekend. Arriving Thursday for a four-day visit were their daughters, Beth Ann Deckard and Linda Tufts of Lebanon, Ohio. Beth Ann and Linda were here to attend the fall festival.

Kay Brown left Thursday for a three-day trip to Brownsburg. She had a nice time as a house-guest of her sister, Karen Kruger.

Tom and Barb LaFollette helped Beth Larsen serve pizzas at the Rochester V.F.W. post Thursday evening.

Ruth Cogdill had a few visitors Friday, Sept. 25. In the morning her son, Tim Cogdill of Macy, came by to see her and his brother, Mike. In the evening, Tim's daughters, Kristy Cogdill and Michelle Sheline, came over for a welcome home visit.

Pauline Brown and Julie had visitors Friday. The first to arrive for a short visit were Candy Field, Coy, Carter and Caleb and Camile Zimpleman, Addison and Parker. Later, Pauline's daughter-in-law and grandson, Deb Brown and Clayton of Fairland, arrived for an overnight stay. (Deb left early the next morning for LaPorte. She has been helping her parents with a remodeling project.) Clayton stayed throughout the weekend to attend the fall festival.

Kayci Cunningham was home for a few days over the weekend to enjoy the fall festival.

Helen Whiteman had a few visitors Friday. Stopping by in the evening and bringing along an elephant ear from the fall festival were her daughter, Sherri Lett, and granddaughter and great-granddaughter, Andrea Hook and Rylee.

Caston high schoolers played the Kewanee fire department in Friday night's mushball game. Final score 16-0, needless to say, someone conceded the game, and it was not Caston. Parents should know better than to play against their own children. Who else would know better how to defeat them?

Barb and Tom LaFollette and their great-grandson, Eli, were in LaPorte Saturday, Sept. 26. They were guests of Barb and Tom's son and his family, Chris and Nita LaFollette, Michele, Michael, Rebecca, Elizabeth and Thomas. Everyone had a great time helping Rebecca celebrate her birthday with cake, ice cream and lots of presents.

Leonard and Nancy Evers accompanied their daughter and son-in-law, Janet and C.J. Yocum of Rochester, and their granddaughter, Andrea Yocum of Indianapolis, to the fall festival Saturday. They had a wonderful time walking around, watching the parade and visiting with a lot of friends.

Florence Hogan had company Saturday. Coming over for a visit were her daughters and their families, Alice and Darrell White of Winamac, Wendy and Dan Kelly of Lafayette and Janice Graham and her children and grandchildren. Everyone had a great time watching the fall festival parade and enjoying the other amusements of the festival, including some of the booths and the mushball tournament.

Linda Garner was a Saturday afternoon visitor of her parents, Don and Pauline Scales.

Ruth Cogdill and Mike had a couple of callers Saturday. Stopping by for a family chat were Ruth's siblings, Janel and David Norris.

Helen Whiteman was among those who participated in the fall festival parade Saturday. She was riding with a group from the Senior Citizens' Center.

Betty Leazenby had several visitors Saturday. Joining her for lunch and an afternoon of visiting were her siblings and their spouses, Don and Mary Lou Carr, Barb and Jon Gast and Bea Ann Clark; her son and daughter-in-law, Bud and Donna Leazenby; and her granddaughter and great-grandson, Amanda and Quinn.

Jerry and Kay Brown were in Star City Saturday evening. They met several members of their family for a double celebration at Cooters' restaurant. Joining them for the meal were their children and their spouses, Mark and Mick Brown, Sue and Mike McKinney, Angie and Tom Smith and Mike Brown; their grandchildren, Jessica Brown and Michael C. Brown of Winamac, and Kay's mother, Mary K. Williamson. They had a nice time celebrating Jerry and Jessica's birthdays. Afterward, Jerry and Kay visited with Jessica in her home.

Linda Garner traveled to Valparaiso Saturday evening. She had a fun time staying with her grandchildren, Zachary and Mackenzie Wassermann.

Ruth Cogdill was the guest of honor at a family gathering Sunday, Sept. 27. The occasion was a belated 80th birthday party. Helping her mark the occasion with dinner and a lot of visiting were her children and their spouses, Linda and Gordon Ligocki of Winamac, Jane and Jim Teeter of Bluffton, Tim and Deb Cogdill of Macy and Mike Cogdill; her grandchildren and their families, Jaclyn and Chad Shaw, Sophia and Sam, and Jessica and Braden with Jacob and Nick of Ft. Wayne, Renata Crissinger, Doran, Lillie, Roan and Olivia of Winamac and Rachel and Travis Scholz of Indianapolis; and Drs. Paul and Charles Heinsen of Winamac. Everyone had a wonderful time celebrating Ruth's birthday, her homecoming and Mike's visit with a day spent outside enjoying the beautiful autumn weather.

Teresa Connor of Winamac was a Sunday visitor of her grandmother, Helen Whiteman.

Tom and Barb LaFollette had company Sunday. Joining them for dinner were their granddaughter and her family, Shelby, Duva and Eli.

Don and Mary Lou Carr left Monday morning, Sept. 28, following a ten-day visit with Don's sister, Betty Leazenby. They were headed for New York and a visit with their son, Don, and his family.

Those persons who will be having birthdays next week (so please remember to give them your best regards) are: Kailee Baird, Amanda Donathen, Stacy Horn, Doug Luhnaw, Alissa Troutman and Kaylyn Young, Oct. 4; Alexia Eastwood, Mary Hinderlinder, Jill Leazenby, Sarah Metzger, Linda Milliser, Micah Rans, Jodie Smith, Jack Urbin and Scott Wilson, Oct. 5; Candy Field, Karen Good, Kristin Horn and Lyndy Szmara, Oct. 6; Nicki McCray and Belinda Weller, Oct. 7; Linda Bangel, Tim Graham, Aaron Herrell, Ivy Powell and Matthew Webb, Oct. 8; Andrew Bangel, Oct. 9; and Jeff Hunter, Harold Johnston, Martha Stoudt and Ann Zartman, Oct. 10.
