Blood shortage

The Indiana-Ohio Region of the American Red Cross is facing very low blood levels and is struggling to fulfill the requests of local hospitals.

With the need for blood surpassing those who are coming to donate, the Red Cross wants to be prepared. In the summer it becomes more difficult to reach blood donors with schools not in session and families traveling on vacation.

Neighboring Red Cross Regions in Cleveland, Columbus, Detroit, Lansing, and Toledo are also experiencing low blood supply levels. This causes concern since these regions are often called upon when the Indiana-Ohio Region needs assistance.

Eligible blood donors are asked to call 1-800-GIVE-LIFE to find a convenient blood drive location. Blood donors must be at least 17 years old, weigh at least 110 pounds, be in general good health and present a valid state-issued photo ID or Red Cross donor card upon donation.

St. Luke's has another busy week

submitted by Millie Redweik
St. Luke Lutheran Church, 721
S. Market St., Winamac, was bustling with all sorts of activities recently.

On Tuesday, July 8, after a deluge of rain, a brave group of members met to assemble a float for the 4-H parade. The tractor and wagon for the float were furnished by Kevin and Kim Podell and son Brian. The float was decorated with boat rails and a mast representative of St. Paul's time. The ship used by St. Paul sailed the Mediterranean Sea as he preached the gospel. The front of the ship (float) carried the Christian flag with a ship load of Christians carrying their message concerning Vacation School. The VBS, to be held July 10, 11 and 12, with the journeys of St. Paul as its theme, was advertised on suckers handed out to the enormous crowd of spectators. The children sang "Michael Row the Boat Ashore" for the enthusiastic crowd. St. Paul was depicted by Quest Fritz on the float.

Those involved in assembling the float included Ken and Louise Gudas, Kathy Zellers, Millie Redweik, Amanda Kistler, Quest Fritz, Zach Zellers, Grace and Clark Gudas, and Clay Kistler. Brian Podell drove the tractor in the parade.

VBS began with an enthusiastic group of 26 children and numerous helpers. Kathy Zellers served as this year's VBS director and she introduced each day's activity during the opening. The interim pastor, Mel Meyer, led and taught the Bible lessons.

On the first day of Bible school, Paul preached to the Galatians

(people in the towns surrounding the Mediterranean Sea) and the theme was Fruit of the Spirit with numerous Bible readings from Galatians, Romans, Ephesians, etc. The children learned about love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. The children designed different fruits to be hung on a tree during craft time. Watermelon was served for refreshments. The children also made a "stress apple" which consisted of a balloon filled with rice.

The second day, the children studied Ephesians and putting on the armor of God. After the lesson, they made a belt of truth, a vest of salvation, a helmet to protect them, a sword of the word of God, a shield of faith, and sandals of the times and righteousness of God. The group enjoyed cookies with a shield and cross on them.

The VBS students wore their vestments as they sang their songs and displayed their Bible memory verses in front of the Saturday evening congregation. The students and congregation enjoyed a cook-out with Alvin and Glen Zellers doing the grilling. The congregation carried in covered dishes to complete the meal. The children voted to give their collections to the Caribbean Christian Center for the Deaf where Chad and Pam Huber and family are missionaries.

Adults and high school helpers involved in crafts, games, refreshments, baby sitting and songs were Wendy Zellers, Amanda Kistler, Louise Gudas, Amy Burgess, Millie Redweik, Cindy Gudas, Donna Koebcke, Carrie Gudas, Marsha Olds, Zachary Zellers, Kathy Zellers,

The VBS surprised Pastor Meyer with an early birthday celebration including a cake with candles as well as a hearty singing of "Happy Birthday". They presented him with a handmade card signed by everyone. His actual birthday is July 23. THE JOYS OF AGING

Author Unknown I have become quite a frivolous old gal. I'm seeing five gentlemen every day. As soon as I awake, Will Power helps me out of bed. When he leaves, I go to see John. Then Charley Horse comes along and when he is here, he takes a lot of my attention. When he leaves, Arthur Ritis shows up and stays the rest of the day. He doesn't like to stay in one place very long so he takes me from joint to joint. After such a busy day, I'm really tired and ready to go to bed with Ben Gay. What a day!

Pursuant to the laws of the Indiana General Assembly, notice is hereby given that the following described property is listed for sale for delinquent taxes and/or special assessments. The county auditor and county treasurer will apply on or after 8/19/2008 for a court judgment against the tracts or real property for an amount that is not less than the amount set out below and for an order to sell the tracts or real property at public auction to the highest bidder, subject to the right of redemption. Any defense to the application for judgment must be filed with the Fulton County CIRCUIT Court before 8/19/2008. The court will set a date for a hearing at least seven (7) days before the advertised date of sale and the court will determine any defenses to the application for judgment at the hearing. Such sale will be held 9/5/2008 at the Commissioners Room and that sale will continue until all tracts and real property have been offered for sale.

Property will not be sold for an amount which is less than the sum of:

The period of redemption shall expire one year from the date of sale for a property sold on the tax sale. The period of redemption may expire one hundred twenty (120) days from the date of sale for a property not sold in the tax sale if the county intends to pursue title to the parcel. The cabbage he had planted was ready to pick so Ruth was sure that by the end of the week the crock would be full. (She received a telephone call Friday afternoon to confirm his endeavor. The "Cogdill crock" is now full of cabbage and in 10-14 days will be full of sauerkraut.)
