Thank You...

To All The People Who Came To The Kewanna Fall Festival and Our "Tribute To Home Town Heroes"

First on our list "thank you, God" for such a beautiful weekend. The weather was so nice.

First on my list to thank are Donna and Joe Watson and family. They went above and beyond, pitching in wherever needed, no questions asked and no job too big, too small or too dirty. We can't forget Paul Hott, our festival buddy, who helped before, during and after the festival. SUPER JOB!

The free circus was presented to you by Community State Bank, Kewanna Metal Specialties and Winamac Coil Spring. They stepped up for you again this year. Thank you Don Woolington and Tom Hickle for lifting all the heavy items into place. All six shows were filled to capacity.

Our thanks to the Fulton County Community Foundation and the REMC Operation Roundup Trust for their support which helped make this year's festival a success.

First Federal Savings, Fulton County Tourism, Embarq, Gas America Services, Inc., Northern Indiana Public Service Co., Rochester Telephone Co. and Wal-mart contributed to the success of the festival. Many thanks to all of you.

Thanks to all who paid for the printing of the flyers. To all of the vendors who supported the washroom facilities we give our thanks from the bottom of our..... HEART.

We had a lot of happy people enjoying free rides, thanks to all the sponsors.

Thanks to Tammy Cox and the people who helped her with the garbage pick up and general clean up. Also to the Kewanna 4-H Happy Hoosiers who kept the picnic tables clean Saturday.

Thanks to all who donated items for the auction and all who worked at the auction. Thank you, Joy, for making and donating the flag afghan. It was really beautiful.

Mayor Thompson along with Terry Wynn of the Rochester Parks Department loaned us picnic tables, which were scattered around the festival area. We were able to pick them up and return them thanks to Roger Haines.

A special thanks to my wife, Diane, and son, Luke, for their help and support.

I've tried not to miss anyone, but it's hard to remember all those who lent a hand in putting on the festival. If you helped in any way, thank you.

Tom Mate, Chairman
Festival Committee

United Methodist Women Hold October Meeting

The Kewanna United Methodist Women met Monday evening, October 1, in the church annex with Bev Ton as the hostess.

The meeting was opened with prayer followed by the secretary-treasurer's report.

A letter was read from Peabody Home Foundation thanking the group for its donation towards entertainment provided by the Peabody Entertainers last month.

The group discussed the fall soup and sandwich luncheon and bake sale to be held November 9 and reviewed bake sale prices. The group will set up for the event Thursday evening, November 8, at 6 p.m.

Devotions were given by Beth Weller. The hostess served refreshments and Karen Good received the door prize.

The group will not meet in November. The December meeting will be in the home of Carol Hickle and will include a carry-in Christmas dinner. In lieu of a gift exchange, members will bring gifts for Emmaus Mission in Logansport.

DEATHS .....

Blanche J. Collins

Blanche J. Collins, 85, Navarre, Florida, passed away at 9:30 p.m. Monday, September 10, 2007 at her residence.

The former Kewanna resident was born October 8, 1921 in Royal Center to Charles and Elsie (Hicks) Gidley.

She was a member of the Kewanna United Methodist Church and a former member of the Order of Eastern Star, Kewanna, and the Elkettes of Fort Walton Beach, Florida. She had also been active in Cub Scouts and other civic activities. Blanche organized the Learning Lab at Chesterfield Marlborough Technical College, Cheraw, South Carolina, and taught students for approximately four years to qualify for college or to attain a GED.

A 1939 graduate of Kewanna High School, she was a homemaker and an expert in needlepoint, ceramics and macrame.

Survivors include her husband, James A. Collins, Navarre, Florida; a son, K. Max Collins, Fredericksburg, Virginia; a daughter, Mary Ellen Collins Hudkins, Pensacola, Florida; and four grandchildren. She was preceded in death by one son, Larry, and twin daughters.

Graveside services will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, October 6, 2007, in the Kewanna Citizens I.O.O.F. Cemetery with Rev. Stephen McPeck officiating.

There will be no visitation. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society. Harrison-Metzger Funeral Homes, Kewanna Chapel, is in charge of arrangements. Online condolences may be made to the Collins family at www.bartisobmetzger.com.

Cub Scouts Kick-off Popcorn Sales

Cub Scout Pack #3215, sponsored by the Grass Creek Lions Club, met September 29 at the Caston Educational Center for its popcorn sales kick-off. Twenty-three cub scouts and their families opened the meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance led by the Tiger Cub den. The Scout Promise was also repeated.

The popcorn sales is the biggest fundraiser of the year and pays for awards, prizes and outings. The sales began Friday, September 28, and will conclude Monday, October 23. Money is due on October 24 to Chuck Smith, Cub Master. The scouts will collect money at the time orders are taken. The second round of sales will begin November 27.

The Cubs and Webeles have been very active in the community. They helped their sponsors by spending an evening cleaning and preparing the Grass Creek Lions' park for the fifth annual Depot Days. They also camped out at the Fulton County Historical Society grounds and cleaned up the grounds at the Trail of Courage, September 15 and 16.

The group sold popcorn at the Kewanna Fall Festival as well as marched in the parade on Saturday, September 29. The scouts wore their uniforms or a patriotic shirt.

Michael Smith and Trey Doan were recognized as last year's top popcorn salesmen and they demonstrated how to "sell" popcorn in a very humorous way. If the pack's sales goal is met, they will have a pack pizza party. A delivery date was not set. Volunteers to pick up the popcorn are needed.

A special pack prize for a minimum of $350 in sales will allow a scout to throw a pie at Cub Master Chuck Smith as well as earn $35 in scout bucks. The pack is not following the prizes on the order form.

Assistant Cub Master Janine Smith and several scouts performed the Boy Scout Association emergency broadcasting skit. It was about emergency alerts.

Everyone enjoyed treats of popcorn and drinks after the meeting.

Any boy wishing to join the Cub Scout pack should contact Chuck Smith for a fun/learning year of activities. Planned activities include campouts, a presentation on geology (volcanoes and their affects on the earth) and other community activities.

Letter To The Editor

Hope Hospice would like to thank all those who supported the first annual "Walk the Walk for Hope Hospice". We had about 50 men, women and children there for a 2.7 mile walk. Our goal was to raise awareness for Hope Hospice and remember loved ones lost. Due to the generosity of our community, we were able to achieve these goals. I would like to thank the companies that sponsored our annual walk: O&R Buildings, First Federal Savings Bank, NIPSCO, Towne Home Furnishings, Wellness Center, Helt Realty, Webb's Radio

Shack, Rochester Ford, Elks Lodge No. 2120, Hoffman Quality Graphics, Wilson Corn Products, Woodlawn Hospital and Hickory Creek of Rochester.

Special thanks goes out to Team Pride, Fine Things, Jarrety's, Fulton County Massage Clinic, Dr. Fritts, Pizza Hut, Webb's Radio Shack, Superior Sample, Dairy Queen and Hoffman Quality Graphics for supplying the prizes for our walkers on Saturday.

Our water was supplied by Jimmy Downs and Culligan and held by water coolers supplied by Coach Miller and the Rochester Athletic Department. All those thirsty walkers thank you.

The backpacks handed out as door prizes contained items from numerous local businesses. We thank you.

Last but not least is a breakdown of the winners of our prizes:

Darlene Cowger - most pledges with 43. She won a 20" LCD flat panel TV with DVD player, supplied by Webb's Radio Shack, a gift certificate from Jarrety's and a Hoffman Quality Graphic cooler.

Cathy Fox - most pledges runner up with 38. She won a Fine Things Gift certificate, Jarrety's gift certificate and a Hoffman Quality Graphics umbrella and cooler.

Kendra Howard - furthest traveler coming from Indianapolis, Indiana. She won $50 in gas cards from Steve's Quick Stop, a Vera Bradley backpack donated by Superior Samples, a Hoffman Quality Graphic cooler and an electric toothbrush supplied by Dr. Fritts.

Marcia Roy - most senior walker. She received a Fine Things Gift certificate, 10 silver sneaker class passes from the Wellness Center, a Pizza Hut gift certificate and a cooler from Hoffman Quality Graphics.

Greg Miller - youngest walker at age 2. Greg won a $50 gift certificate to Wal-mart, a free ice cream cake from Dairy Queen, electric toothbrush from Dr. Fritts and a cooler from Hoffman Quality Graphics.

We also had a drawing for all those present. We gave away a DVD player donated by Webb's Radio Shack as well as a Pizza Hut gift certificate and a Hoffman Quality Graphic cooler.

Hope Hospice would like to thank our entire community for the support granted to us over the last 12 years. Please accept our thanks for a wonderful event for our community.

Sincerely,
Dan Purkey,
Executive Director
Hope Hospice

CHATTER...

By: Julie Brown (574) 653-2451

Tim Cogdill of Macy was in Kewanna Monday, Sept. 24, to visit with his mother, Ruth Cogdill. They enjoyed the morning over a pot of coffee and caught up on all the family news. Kristy and Shawn are now housemates at the home of her sister, Candice, who resides in Grass Creek. The girls are doing well and enjoying college classes.

Mary Margaret Wagoner of Metea and Ellen Walsh enjoyed delightful visits with Florence Miller and Shirley Newell at Wesley Manor early in the week.

Barb and Jon Gast had company Tuesday, Sept. 25. Coming down for a visit and to tackle some household chores was their daughter, Randi Neidig of Bourbon.

Tom and Barb LaFollette were in Rochester Tuesday evening. They helped prepare pizzas for the Moose lodge's evening meal. Wednesday, Sept. 26, they were in Logansport. They did a little shopping and enjoyed some coney dogs and root beer at the B & K East restaurant before it closed for the season.

Linda Bangel of Schoolcraft, Michigan was a weekend houseguest of her parents, Earl and Mary Bangel.

Barbara Brown and Sharlene Haimbaugh of Rochester were Friday afternoon, Sept. 28, visitors of Pauline Brown.

Shirley Hoff of Greenwood arrived Friday evening at the home of Bill and Marilyn Moon. She and her Uncle Bill watched the parade in Kewanna Saturday afternoon. They toured the midway as well. Sunday afternoon Shirley and the Moons visited the Frettinger women in Rochester before her trip back to Greenwood.

Ruth Cogdill recently spent several days as a guest of her daughter and son-in-law, Linda and Gordon Ligocki, at Winamac. Friday, Linda and Ruth traveled to Merrillville for Ruth's doctor appointment. They enjoyed lunch at the Applebee's restaurant and did a little shopping. Ruth returned home the following day.

Ruth Ann Anderson had company over the weekend. Arriving Friday for an overnight visit was her daughter, Becky Lincoln, and granddaughter and great-granddaughter, Sara Edwards and Kahlan, all of South Bend. The ladies had a wonderful time visiting and attending the fall festival.

Bea Ann Clark was a weekend houseguest of her sister, Betty Leazenby. The sisters enjoyed attending the fall festival together.

Jackie Heidenreich had houseguests over the weekend. Coming for a three-day visit from Wisconsin were her daughters, Judy Metye of Cedar Grove and Lola Pruess of Jefferson; her granddaughter and great-granddaughters, Melanie

Hendschel, Angel and Destiny, of Elkhart Lake; and her granddaughter-in-law and great-grandson, Angie Pruess and Caleb

Helen Whiteman had a couple of visitors Saturday, Sept. 29. Coming over in the morning for a visit were her granddaughter and great-granddaughter, Andrea Hook and Rylee.

Earl and Mary Bangel and Linda traveled to Evansville Saturday. They had a wonderful time attending the wedding of Stephanie Robinson and Michael Hoffherr. Stephanie is the Bangels' great-niece.

Saturday, Jackie Heidenreich and her houseguests, Judy, Lola, Melanie, Angie, Destiny, Angie and Caleb had a busy day. In the morning they enjoyed traveling to Toto to do a little shopping. In the afternoon, they attended the Kewanna Fall Festival. In the evening, they were supper guests of Jackie's son and daughter-in-law, Roger and Brenda Vogel at Rochester, for a Mexican dinner.

Jean Bauman of Plymouth was in the area Saturday. She had a delightful time visiting with her cousins, Bea Ann Clark, Barb Gast, and Betty Leazenby.

Shelby Bohac was a Saturday overnight houseguest of her grandparents, Tom and Barb LaFollette.

Jackie Heidenreich and her houseguests enjoyed visiting over breakfast at the Kewanna Kafe Sunday morning, Sept. 30.

Mathilda Lamb had a guest

Sunday. Coming over to help set up her quilt stand was her daughter-in-law, Judy Lamb of Ft. Wayne.

Dropping in to visit with Ruth Cogdill Sunday afternoon, were her granddaughter and great-grandchildren, Renata, Lillie and Roan, and Lillie's friend, Bobbie Banderheydn. Renata and the children were in town attending the fall festival.

Helen Whiteman had working visitors Sunday. Coming for a family chat, dinner and to finish some chores around her house were her sons and daughters-in-law, Kevin and Monica Whiteman of Pulaski and Kenny and Bev Whiteman.

Mary and Earl Bangel and Linda stopped in Indianapolis Sunday. They enjoyed visiting with Bruce and Theresa Bangel.

Those persons who will be having birthdays next week (so please remember to give them your best regards) are: Nicki McCray and Belinda Weller, Oct. 7; Linda Bangel, Tim Graham, Aaron Herrell, Ivy Powell and Matthew Webb, Oct. 8; Andrew Bangel, Oct. 9; Jeff Hunter, Harold Johnston, Martha Stoudt and Ann Zartman, Oct. 10; Cindy Bowyer and Denise Robson, Oct. 11; Hunter Doty, Bill Ingram, Elijah Rans and Rob Troutman, Oct. 12; and Christi Doty and Allison Foerg, Oct. 13.

There are seven couples who will be celebrating their wedding anniversaries next week: Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hines, Oct. 7; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hickle, Oct. 8; Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Thomas, Oct.

9; Mr. and Mrs. Eric Baker, Oct. 10; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Easterday, Oct. 11; and Mr. and Mrs. Danny Chew, Oct. 12.

Caston Football Fundraiser

The Caston football program is hosting a Nelson's Port-a-pit chicken dinner/tailgate party fundraiser Friday, October 12, in conjunction with the Caston/Tri-County football game. This is also senior night.

The cost of the dinner is $6.50 per dinner and includes a half chicken, baked beans, chips, cookie and drink.

Those wishing to attend the event will need to purchase their tickets in advance. They are available at the Caston Bookstore, the Twelve Mile branch of Community State Bank, or from any football player.

Sen. Tom Weatherwax (R-Logansport) recently presented the Indiana Distinguished Hoosier Award to Jim Brettin of Winamac for his service and dedication to the community of Winamac and the State of Indiana. The Distinguished Hoosier Award is one of the highest honors given by the state and honors those who have worked to better Indiana.
