County Auditor Attends Conference

Denise J. Bonnell, Fulton County auditor, was one of over 400 county officials and county employees who attended the Association of Indiana Counties (AIC) 47th annual conference held October 17 – 20 in Indianapolis.

The AIC's annual conference, the largest gathering of county officials in the state, included meetings designed specifically for each elected county official, 16 different workshops as well as informal opportunities where county officials and employees discussed issues with their colleagues from other areas of the state. Officials met at the Hyatt Regency Hotel to discuss and offer solutions for issues facing local governments. Representatives from public agencies, private entities, universities and local elected officials addressed such issues as economic development incentives, computer software standards, tax restructuring, welfare services, local government reorganization, cost saving measures, managing growth and homeland security.

Conference attendees heard from keynote speaker Governor Mitch Daniels regarding changes in the first ten months of his administration and what his goals will be for the future. The president of the National Association of Counties (NACo), Bill Hansell, was also present to discuss NACo, the importance of state associations, and the NACo Drug Prescription Card Program. An update from the White House was also provided by Toby Burke, Office of Intergovernmental Affairs. Burke offered attendees information on the goals and initiatives of the President of the United States and his advisors in the White House as they pertain to county government.

The AIC's Board of Directors met with the legislative committee members during the conference and adopted its 2006 legislative platform. The legislative platform covers key issues facing counties such as property taxes, 911 funding, child welfare services, local government collaboration and consolidation.

In addition, the annual election of officers was held. The AIC also joined NACo's initiative to support parish and county employees in the states hit hardest by Hurricane Katrina in hosting a silent online auction powered by SRI, Incorporated, and a county versus county fundraising contest. .All monies collected will be donated to the NACo's Parish and County Family Fund. The distribution of this fund will be handled by state association of counties/parishes for Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama.

THE GATHERING
Why Do We Socialize And Share Food After The Funeral?
Most funerals are followed by a gathering of friends and family.
This informal time allows mourners to tell stories about the person who died, to cry, to laugh, to support one another. It is an informal time of release after the more formal elements of the funeral ceremony.
The gathering is also a transition, a rite of passage back to living again. It demonstrates the continuity of life, even in the face of death.

DEATHS.....

ANTONIA AGATHA GUDAS

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. today (Thursday, November 3, 2005) at Frain Mortuary, Winamac for Antonia Agatha Gudas, 100, Kewanna. Pastor Carl Fitchett will officiate and burial will be in the Winamac Cemetery. Mrs. Gudas died at 9:30 a.m. Sunday, October 30, 2005, at Pulaski Memorial Hospital, Winamac.

Mrs. Gudas was born November 27, 1904, in Detroit, Michigan, and was baptized December 25, 1904. Her parents, Karl Gottlieb and Constance Barbas Arndt emigrated to the United States from Vilkaviskis, Lithuania via Essen, Germany, where they lived temporarily and worked for the Krupp Ammunition Company. The family moved to Foley, Alabama in 1911 in search of a warmer climate and longer growing season. They pioneered there, clearing the land to make it tillable. Antonia married Joseph Gudas, Sr. on August 18, 1922 in Pensacola, Florida. He died August 26, 1973

Joseph was an immigrant to the United States from Lithuania arriving in 1910. After their marriage, the couple lived in Binghamton, New York where they owned and operated the Garsas Baking Company. Eventually they moved back to Foley where they farmed as well as ran a bakery. Three of their children, Johanna, Algird and Joseph, were born in Foley.

Eventually the couple moved to Chicago as some of Antonia's sisters had settled there. They also operated a bakery in Chicago. Later, the couple moved to the Monterey and Winamac areas where they farmed. In 1952, they purchased a farm in Van Buren Township, Pulaski County. Four of their children, Mildred, Edwina, Mary and Edmund, were born in the Winamac area.

Antonia loved her family beyond measure, always looking for opportunities to visit with them. She was a wonderful hostess with fresh apple pies, fresh bread, homemade candy and cookies and popcorn just waiting for takers. She loved having tea and coffee with any and all visitors. Then there was a goody bag to go home with the company, to enjoy later.

Antonia was able to travel to numerous family activities as her years built up. Her latest trip was in 2002 to visit her sister, Elizabeth Swirn, in Foley, Alabama, and help her celebrate her 100th birthday. While in Foley, she visited her parents' gravesites as well as those of other friends and relatives. She also revisited her growing-up stomping grounds as well as the Arndt family's original homestead. She also attended the weddings of great-great nieces and nephews in Michigan.

She loved gardening and getting her hands down into the earth. This past summer a small garden was planted for her, which she weeded and cared for at every opportunity. She harvested beets, radishes, lettuce, peas, potatoes, onions, tomatoes and big bouquets of flowers for her table.

The community was not neglected either, as she enjoyed attending fundraisers as well as giving money and goods.

She attended church and school activities with her grandchildren at every opportunity. She loved to hold the babies at birth, baptisms and birthday parties. When she became unable to be out walking due to arthritis she resigned herself to the idea of "crawling" around, and the wheel chair for mobility.

Through the years of helping her husband plant the farm crops, she composed poems on fertilizer bags, which were put into a book and presented to family and friends. The poem book showed her concern and love for all.

Her family has collected stories and anecdotes that Antonia wrote about her life in Detroit, Foley and other areas of the United States and will publish them as soon as commitments and time allows.

She picked blueberries at Ruhl's patch and loved it. She could recite poems from memory as well as sing hundreds of songs. She was fluent in the Lithuanian language and knew all of the old songs from memory, too.

Town & Country CHATTER...

By: Julie Brown (574) 653-2451

Among those enjoying lunch at Lynn's Coffee Shop Sunday were Rich and Tami Powell and their exchange student, Yves Panchauv; their children, Traci Powell and Trent and Malea Powell, Abigail, Ivy and Mitchell, all of Rochester, Trisha Powell, South Bend; Tami's mother, Florence Baldwin, and Jake Hardebeck. After lunch, they all attended the Halloween Festival where Tami took five trips down the slide! The group enjoyed pizza in the evening at Rick and Tami's where they were joined by Andrea Hoehne of Rochester and Traci Ummel of Argos.

Mildred McColley had a busy weekend attending the wedding festivities of her only granddaughter, Ginger McColley, daughter of Ron and Karon McCOlley of Frankfort. Ron came Friday to take Mildred to Frankfort for the wedding rehearsal, followed by dinner in West Lafayette. Saturday afternoon, Ginger became the bride of Chris Batta at St. Matthew's United Methodist Church in Frankfort. The wedding reception followed at the Frankfort Country Club. The new Mr. and Mrs. Chris Batta left for a honeymoon in the Smokey Mountains at Gatlinburg, Tennessee. They will make their home in West Lafayette. Ginger is employed at Purdue as an information technology specialist for Global Trade Analysis. Chris is an application engineer for Butler International. Both are Purdue graduates. Also attending the wedding and reception from this area were Beth and Ray Weller and Ruth Ann Anderson of Kewanna and Pat and George Hoover of Rochester.

(Birthdays and anniversaries for the week of Nov. 6-12.)

Those persons who will be having birthdays next week (so please remember to give them your best regards) are: Dave Briney, Doug Sutton and Megan Tomerlin, Nov. 6; Wilma Brazier, Ryan K. Hall, Nicole Mitchell and Holly Wolfe, Nov. 7; Trina Ingram and Wesley Urbin, Nov. 8; Betty Doty, Nov. 9; Nicole Carpenter, Karen Evers and Connor Sommers, Nov. 10; Phillip Eastwood, Mildred McColley, Steve Rude, Taylor Wilson and Becky Zellers, Nov. 11; and David Evers and Penny Keyser, Nov. 12.

There are six couples who will be celebrating their wedding anniversaries next week: Mr. and Mrs. Mike Gallagher and Mr. and Mrs. Mike McKinney, Nov. 7; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Donathen, Nov. 9; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Kimble, Nov. 10; Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Baker, Nov. 11; and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shroder, Nov. 12.

REQUESTS FOR PROPOSALS FOR ENGINEERING SERVICES
October 17, 2005

This request for proposals is the official notice of needed professional services for Fulton County, Indiana.

This request is distributed in accordance with the Procedures for Selection of Consultants on Contracts involving Federal Participation, adopted August 3, 1983.

Any consultant having on file with Fulton County, or submitted with their proposal, current information on the firm's qualifications may submit a proposal for the services indicated herein to:

Board of Commissioners of Fulton County
% Denise Bonnell, Auditor
125 East 9th St.
Rochester, IN 46975

Only proposals received on or before 4:00 p.m. EST November 21, 2005, will be given consideration.

Each proposal shall include the following as a minimum;

a. description of the proposed project; and
b. description of anticipated work elements; and
c. proposed staffing for the work including designation of project engineer and project manager; and
d. proposed schedule of work; and
e. anticipated work to be sublet; and
f. information concerning current overhead rate as prepared by a CPA or registered accountant or as approved by INDOT.

Pricing information is not to be submitted at this time. Selection of professional consultants by the Board of Commissioners is not based on competitive bidding, but on that firm's professional qualifications, experience and expertise of key personnel to be assigned to the project with consideration also given to:

a. performance evaluations on similar projects, if applicable
b. familiarity with the particular project and area
c. staff personnel available for this project
d. special or unique expertise
e. ability to complete the work in the time required and the firm's existing work load
f. the firm's proximity to the project
g. extent of work which must be subcontracted by the firm and their proposed method of accomplishing the project objectives.

The Contract for Engineering services will be subject to approval by the Indiana Department of Transportation and the Federal Highway Administration, and all work is to be done in accordance with the National Bridge Inspection Standards, the current AASHTO Manual for Maintenance Inspection of Bridges, the Recording and Coding Guide for the Structure Inventory and Appraisals of the Nations Bridges, and the Indiana Department of Transportation's current specifications.

It is anticipated that the selection of a consultant for engineering services and contract negotiation will be decided at 9:00 a.m. EST on December 5, 2005.

Services will consist of the following:

Reinspection of all (approximately 60) County Bridges within Fulton County in accordance with the National Bridge Inspection Standards, fracture critical inspection of 1 bridge and underwater inspection of approximately 7 bridges.

The program will consist of the bridge reinspection being accomplished in two (2) phases as follows:

PHASE I (2006) A complete inspection and full report of all bridges in the county compiled on a four (4) year interval including underwater inspections and fracture critical feature inspections, if required. The fieldwork or Phase I shall begin on or before April 10, 2006.

PHASE II (2008) A complete reinspection update, a brief summary report with revised SI&A sheets and coding forms of all bridges in the county compiled on the two (2) year interval between the four (4) year full report as well as a fracture critical detail report as required.

Caston Winter Sports Newsletter

The fall sports are now completed and although we didn't finish the seasons as well as we wanted, we did have individuals make all conference and all county. Our fall sports teams also received no unsportsmanlike reports from the IHSAA and we are very proud of the way our athletes represented themselves and the school on the playing fields. One of our goals for athletics at Caston is to be awarded a banner for sportsmanship from the IHSAA and our fall athletes did a tremendous job to start off the year.

Branden Justice was named all conference in football and Bryan Powlen was named honorable mention, while Jenny Vinson was named all conference in volleyball and Kaylyn Herrold and Jennifer Curtis made the honorable mention team. Michelle Centers was named to the cross country All-Loganland team and Emily Smith, Heath Gearhart and Shawn Righter were named to the second string All-Loganland teams. Heath Gearhart was also named All Conference in cross country and Shawn Righter was honorable mention. In soccer, Silas Zartman led the offense and Kyle Sommers led the defense as the soccer team lost a heartbreaker to Twin Lakes in the sectional. The girls' golf team was very young this year and was led by junior, Jessica Kantzer, who was named to the all conference team, and freshman, Erica Zartman. The team finished a very respectable fourth in the conference.

The junior high sports season also brought plenty of excitement as the cross country teams were led by Caleb Siders and Kara Smith. Each team had enough to compete for championships at the meets and they all performed well. The junior high football team had 23 players out and we played both a 7th grade game and an 8th grade game. Everyone received a lot of playing time and both finished the season on a high note as the 7th grade team defeated West Central 7-6 and the 8th grade won 40-6. The 7th grade volleyball team had 13 girls out and we played both 7A and 7B games. They improved as the season went on and played many three game matches. The 8th grade played just A games this season and they too improved. Meghan Myers led the 8th grade and we look forward to watching them next year in high school volleyball. The junior high soccer team was led by 8th graders Garrett Johnson, Tristan Conner, Brooke Oberg, Donnie McClain and Jake Cheeley this season and they played some fine games.

The fall junior high athletes held their awards night November 2 in the cafeteria. The high school awards will be held on November 8 at 6 p.m. in the cafeteria. This will be a carry-in dinner with the athletic department furnishing broasted chicken and table service and each family is asked to bring a covered dish and their own drink.

With the winter sports season upon us, our athletes will be very busy again. The JV/varsity and freshman girls' basketball teams started practice Monday, October 24, and have 25 girls out. We have added a freshman C team schedule this season with eight games and look forward to the JV and varsity's first game at Wabash on November 11. The boys' teams will start practice November 3 (today) with new boys' varsity coach, Ryan Bales, at the helm. We feel fortunate to have Coach Bales at Caston and we feel he will be a tremendous role model for our athletes. The boys are scheduled to open up with Peru in the Cass County Tourney at 8 p.m. but that is still up in the air with Pioneer's success in football. The junior high boys' team opens up next Wednesday, November 9, with 7 A-B at home vs. Culver in the high school gym at 6 p.m. and 8 A-B at Culver. We currently have 13 out for the 7th grade and 20 out for the 8th grade. The varsity wrestling team started practice Monday evening and returns several key wrestlers. They open at home on November 30 in the high school gym at 6:30 p.m. vs. Triton. The junior high girls' basketball team starts practice on December 9 from 3:30 to 5 p.m. in the high school gym.

Season tickets for boys and girls basketball are on sale in the bookstore. Boys have nine home games and the price is $27.00. The girls have seven home games and cost is $24. The season tickets don't include any tournaments.

All session tickets for the Cass County boys' and girls' tournament will be on sale in the bookstore November 14 until noon on November 22. The price is $15.99 and good for all boys' and girls' varsity county tourney games. Single session tickets each night will be $5 at the door. JV tourney tickets are only sold at the doors on November 25 – JV boys at Caston and JV girls at Pioneer. Games start at 9:30 a.m.

The tentative schedule for the Cass County Tourney is:

Girls Varsity at Logansport

Nov. 22 – 6:00 p.m. Caston vs. Logansport; 8:00 p.m. Pioneer vs. Peru

Nov. 26 – Consolation game at 11 a.m. and championship game at 1 p.m.

Boys Varsity at Logansport

Nov. 23 – 6 p.m. Pioneer vs. Logansport; 8:00 p.m. Caston vs. Peru

Nov. 26 – Consolation game at 6 p.m. and championship game at 8 p.m.

JV Girls at Pioneer

Nov. 25 – 9:30 a.m. Caston vs. Logansport and Pioneer vs. Peru; consolation and championship games at 11:30 a.m.

JV Boys at Caston

Nov. 25 – 9:30 a.m. Caston vs. Peru and Logansport vs. Pioneer; consolation and championship games at 11:30 a.m.
